Obligations of Miss XS for 2007-2008

1. Miss Club XS will be asked to host events from time to time.
2. Miss XS will be able to appear at least one other Friday each month to mingle with customers, do meet and greet, and represent the club in a positive light. While doing so, she must be able to wear the winning sache and crown.
3. Miss XS will be able to participate in other shows/pageants, but she must keep in mind that she still represents Club XS, and must do in a professional manner.
4. If she has to miss a show at the Club due to an outside obligation, she must give the club at least 2 weeks notice, and she also understands that she will not be paid for any missed shows or appearances.
5. Miss XS must always act professional and must prepare for any performances in a timely manner. If the club needs an extra appearance for a special reason, Club XS will give Miss XS at least 2 weeks advance notice to make sure she has enough time to prepare as well.
6. If Miss XS cannot fulfill any of her duties, she can be relieved from her title/duties at any time, and the first alternate will take over her position immediately.
7. If Miss XS is relieved from her duties either by her or by the club, she must surrender her crown back to the club if she does not complete her contract.
8. Reasons why Miss XS could be stripped of her title/contract are as follows:
  - Gets involved in criminal activity or unlawful acts.
  - Does not fulfill requirements of duties/contract.
  - Acts unprofessional or brings bad publicity to the club.
  - Talks or communicates any type of derogatory statements about the club, its personnel, or management.

What are the judges looking for in the Miss XS competition?

1. First and foremost the judges will be looking for professionalism, character, and ability to communicate effectively to an audience, glamour, dependability, talent, charm, and sheer wit.
2. The ability to meet the required elements of the competition, (i.e. Talent, Evening Gown, Onstage Question to judge delivery and communication, and Sportswear).
3. Hair and Makeup, along with accessories to be tasteful and compliment your attire.
4. Ability to get the audience involved in your performance.
5. Ability to display the female persona.

6. Ability to convey a high sense of fashion while being able to effectively entertain the audience.
7. Ability to effectively convince the judges that you should be Miss XS, and that you would be the best one to consistently represent the club in a professional and positive light.
